TRIBUTE TO TOBY KEELER

HON. BRAD SHERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 16, 1998

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Toby Keeler, for his leadership and efforts to improve the quality of life in our community. Toby is a determined, hard working individual who has dedicated countless hours to the Las Virgenes Homeowners Federation and has enhanced the area in the process.

During his term as President of the Las Virgenes Homeowners Federation from 1995 to 1997, Toby repeatedly lobbied on behalf of those he represented.

First, Toby played an instrumental role in orchestrating the Las Virgenes opposition to a massive commercial development that threatened to destroy most of the natural area adjacent to the 101 Freeway. After this successful effort, Toby redesigned a controversial park center project, a move which ultimately guaranteed its construction.

Later in his term as President, Toby rallied support for a proposition that raised necessary funding to keep open several fire stations, and campaigned to increase land acquisition funding for the Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area.

In another display of his support for the environment, Toby organized opposition to the SOKA University project in the Santa Monica Mountains which would have allowed construction on protected lands.

Toby is also a former member of the Planning Commission for the City of Calabasas, and is the current President of the Old Topanga Homeowners Association, where he has continued in his role as a community leader.

Mr. Speaker, distinguished colleagues, please join me in paying tribute to Toby Keeler. He has shown an unwavering commitment to the community and deserves our recognition and praise.

TRIBUTE TO HELEN DAVID

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 16, 1998

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to have the opportunity to recognize the achievements of a very special woman, a dear friend, Mrs. Helen David. For sixty years, Helen David has been the owner of the Brass Rail, a unique bar in the heart of Port Huron. On June 15, 1998, community members and friends will join Helen at the Brass Rail to celebrate the sixtieth birthday of the Brass Rail.

Prior to June 15, 1937, the Brass Rail was a quaint ice cream shop named Hibble's Ice Cream Polar. The sweet shop was owned and operated by Helen's parents, Tony and Elizabeth Hibble. After the death of her father, Helen transformed the ice cream shop with the support of her mother and aunt. In 1939, Helen fell in love and married Sol David. Until his death in 1967, Helen and Sol worked side by side creating a popular Port Huron tradition.

In Port Huron, Helen is known not only as a smart business woman, she is recognized as a community leader and humanitarian. Throughout the years Helen has been a member of the Quota Club, an organization designed to help the hearing impaired. She has also been honored for her work with St. Jude's Children's Hospital by the North America Benefit Association. Recently Helen made a major contribution to the St. Clair County Council on Aging to help establish a new senior center in Port Huron.

In six decades, Helen David's warm personality, her commitment to her patrons and her involvement in the community have endeared her to many people throughout St. Clair County. Very few people have the spirit and dedication to give to their community as Helen has given to hers. I would like to congratulate Helen as she celebrates her historic milestone of sixty years in business.

THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY
PLAN TO FIGHT DRUGS VERSUS LEGALIZATION

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 16, 1998

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, the U.N. General Assembly recently took up the problem of international drug production and trade as it moved forward with an emerging consensus that all of the nations of the globe must fight this scourge together, and stop the finger pointing.

The U.N. proposal that emerged was an ambitious yet doable plan to eliminate the production of cocaine and heroin in 10 years, although regrettably the means to finance this important proposal were not found.

In Monday's New York Times, columnist A.M. Rosenthal points out another battle in the war on drugs, the effort of many who favor "legalization" to discredit the U.N. anti-drug efforts and to camouflage their own worldwide cause to foster legalization by the use of nice sounding phrases like "harm reduction."

Mr. Speaker, I ask that Mr. Rosenthal's informative column be reprinted herein. It points out the nature of this legalization campaign which reflects a sense of failure, lack of political will, and submission to the evils of illicit drugs that few Americans, or others around the globe support, or would ever subject their children and future generations to under the guise of such a misdirected solution.

POINTING THE FINGER

The three-day meeting on fighting drugs was one of the more useful United Nations conferences in decades. It was well led by Pino Arlacchi, the Italian Mafia-buster, drew chiefs of state and narcotics specialists from every part of the world, and wound up with a plan to eliminate the growing of illegal heroin and cocaine in 10 years—certainly difficult but certainly doable.

So, months before the opening Monday, a campaign to attack the conference was planned. It was worked out by Americans who devote their careers and foundation grants not to struggling against narcotics but legalizing them under one camouflage or another.

Before the first gavel, they were ready with advertisements writing off the conference, had rounded up American and European signatures denouncing the war against drugs as a failure, and had mobilized their network of web sites.

They convinced one or two convincing journalists that people opposed to the anti-drug effort had been banned from talking at meetings of specialists and organizations. That's strange, because at the very first forum I attended there were as many legalizers as drug fighters making statements and asking questions.

The propaganda was professionally crafted. Hundreds of well-known people and wannabes signed an opening-day two-page
